A BOLD LIE NAILED

Under a Jefferson City date line of September 22nd, the Globe-Democrat printed the following dispatch sent in by its

'A prominent Democratic atfailure of the Democratic contestants to produce any evidence charges of fraud in connection with the St. Louis election last fall has forwarded his check for a good-sized sum to a Republican leader in Jefferson City, to be used by the Republicans in disproving the Democratic frautcharges."

In reply to this "whother."

In reply to this "whopper," the editor of the Rolla Herald, Col. Chas. L. Woods, prints the following in its issue of September 28th:

check. Ex-Congressman A. P. the attorney who sent the check and we don't believe any one in Phelps county will charge Pat Murphy as being a Democrat."

This, is a fair sample of the kind of "dope" the Globe's Jefferson City romancer dishes up. It should be the business of every Democratic editor in the

This new sense of conquest is an added power which increases self-confidence and self-respect.

Henry Ward Beecher used to tell the following story of how he was taught, when a boy, to depend on himself:

"I was sent to the blackboard, and went uncertain, full of whimpering.

That lesson must be learned,' said my teacher, in a quiet tone, but with terrible intensity. All explanations and excuses he trod under foot with utter scorn fulness. I want that problem I don't want any reason why you havn't it.' he would say. " 'I did study two hours.'

"That's nothing to me; I want the lesson. You need not study it at all, or you may study it ten hours, just to suit yourself. want the lesson

"It was tough for a green boy, but it seasoned me. In less than a month, I had the most intense sense of intellectual independence and courage to defend my recitations.

"One day his cold, calm voice fell upon me in the midst of demonstration, 'No!'

"I hesitated and then went back to the beginning; and, on reaching the same point again, 'No!' uttered in a tone of conviction barred my progress.

"The next! I sat down in red confusion. "He, too, was stopped with

No!' but went right on, and finished; and, as he sat down, was rewarded with 'Very well.'
"Why,' whimpered I, 'I recited it just as he did, and you said 'No!' " Why didn't you say 'Yes, and stick to it? It is not enough to know your lesson; you must know that you know it. You have learned nothing until you are sure. If all the world says No,' your business is to say 'Yes,' and prove it.' "

One of the greatest delusions that a human being could ever have is that he is permanently benefited by continued assistance
